2014.9.16

Today is the first dance practice session for the new project. But I didn't like it at all. Only those without talent would want to use their moves for attention.

2014.9.17

Got provoked by that boy yesterday; he said he would kneel before me if I could learn his dance in one week.
So mad! Isn't it just a dance? I will prove I'm a better dancer than anyone else and I'm more excellent than you guys. Will pratice hard so I'm gonna stop writing diary in the next few days.

2014.9.24

I won the bet. Those two guys have kneeled one leg each. What made me feel funny the most is that they kneeled both their legs just for one meal...

2014.11

Never thought I would debut with these two as FLY. From now on, there are an idiot and a useless guy beside me. I still want to invidually debut and sing my own song though. Oh well... just stay in this group first...

2015.5

My hair grows long. I just dyed them light yellow a few days ago. Had lunch with Ethan and Dorian. Ethan's head is always on the clouds. Hope we're getting better and better. I mean... the group, not "we"!

2016.5

Our comic got launched today. Well, Ethan bought a lot of them. He was freaking happy.

2016.8.10

Today I soloed the theme song of "Loving you" show. Ethan and Dorian said they especially wrote a song for me, "Nothing is impossible". Hey dudes, there is still a cross on the script. Obviously it was submitted to "Loving you" but didn't make it. And the lyrics written by Ethan is really dumb. "Maybe... sometimes letting go is the most beautiful love."
Letting go is the most beautiful love, huh?

T/N: This is the extra from volume 2 of the comic. However, by the release of volume 2, the online version had already had about 200 chapters. The event mentioned above should be in volume 4.
